

WOMAN IS VICTIM OF ASSAILANT WHO MAKES ESCAPES

Authorities Unable to Get Clue to Identity of Miscreant.

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 4.—Miss Lucille Marshall, twenty-eight years old, is in Mercer Hospital, this city, in a critical condition as the result of a brutal assault suffered last night at the hands of an unknown assailant who she first said was colored and next declared was a white man.

Because of the fact that she is irrational, the authorities can get no clue as to the assailant's identity.

The assault was committed near the woman's Hennington road home in the outskirts of the city. She was en route home after a shopping tour and had reached a dark and lonely section when she was attacked. Her assailant fled on the approach of persons who heard her victim moaning and fighting and no trace of him can be found.

When examined at the hospital it was found Miss Marshall had suffered a fractured skull, broken nose and the loss of several teeth as the result of being beaten by an iron bar when she fought to keep the assailant away.

ANACOSTIA ROADS GREATLY IMPROVED

Minnesota and Nichols Avenues Straightened, Widened, and Resurfaced, to Gratification of Citizens—Old Soldier, Escaping From Asylum, Recaptured.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU,
ANACOSTIA, D. C., DEC. 4.

Minnesota avenue, going north on Pennsylvania avenue, has been straightened, graded and resurfaced with gravel and crushed stone. This will greatly improve conditions which have existed for many years, as the old road was in a very bad condition. The distance will also be considerably shortened by the change. This road will eventually be cut through to the District line.

Frank Heston, living at Silver Spring, Md., while riding a motorcycle on Walker road near Alabama avenue southeast, struck a stone and was thrown off. The motorcycle skidded from under him and hit Robert Kiplinger, who was walking along the road, injuring him about the back. Both returned to their home without medical attention.

Clarence B. Sydnor, an old soldier and inmate of St. Elizabeth's Insane Asylum, was reported missing yesterday morning by the attendants at the asylum. He was later picked up by Policeman John Roan, of the seventh precinct, and brought to the station, from where he was taken back to the asylum. He said he was tired of staying at the asylum and was on his way to Mexico.

The work of resurfacing and widening Nichols avenue between Hilldale and St. Elizabeth's is being rapidly pushed forward.

Lieutenant Plimmons, of the Eleventh Infantry, is very ill at his home, Sgt. M. L. Hardy is acting in his place. Policeman J. A. Cockill has gone on a hunting trip for two weeks to his home in Fauquier county. Motorcycle Policeman A. E. Smoot will spend ten days at his home in Charles county. Officers C. R. Brown and Frank Hughes have taken leave for a few days. Patrol Driver R. H. Shipley has taken leave for a week. Extra Patrol Driver C. A. Clements is acting in his place.

The Minnesota avenue citizens are much elated at the assurance of having a new pumping station placed on the site of the old one. The District government has begun to dig the foundation.

The Junior Order of Mechanics will open nominations for officers next Tuesday evening to serve during the next six months.

MORGAN SATISFIED INTERESTS ARE SAFE

Guggenheims Are Only Seekers of Protection in Mexico's War Zone.

J. Pierpont Morgan is satisfied with the protection that has been afforded his interests in Mexico, so far as the information of the State Department was available today.

In response to a report that Mr. Morgan had specifically asked for protection to his interests there, Secretary of State Knox, Second Assistant Secretary Ade, and several other officials of the department made a denial.

The Guggenheim interests have called upon the State Department for protection to some of their mining properties, and it is thought that Morgan is interested in some of these enterprises. This fact is supposed to have given rise to the report that the big financier was asking the aid of the State Department.
